Digital Leaders Programme

Things are moving fast at BNP Paribas Fortis. The biggest bank in Belgium is undergoing a digital transformation that will change the face of the bank forever.

The biggest challenge? Who will lead this revolution? Digitally-born-and-bred youngsters, that’s for sure. But they need to be people with vision too. With digital ideas and insights. With guts. With the talent and power to motivate people and steer this revolution. It’s a job for highly talented future leaders. Are you one of them?

What this traineeship is about

Our 18-month traineeship will transform you from a talented youngster into a future leader. Be prepared to learn a lot in a short period of time.

- Different tracks – The digital revolution can be found everywhere in the bank. We defined several digital tracks. You can work in process re-engineering, marketing, communication or data management. Based on your strengths and passions we will together look for the perfect track.

- Different projects – During your traineeship we’ll bring you to different corners of BNP Paribas Fortis, the best way to discover the different perspectives within the bank. You’ll take on three projects to help you grow towards a future leader in your track.
