Recruitment Consultant - Best Training in the Business

The Company

Hello, my name is Eduard and I have the pleasure of recruiting for the same company that I work: NonStop Recruitment. There are many things that make NonStop stand out from other recruiting companies:

- the environment,
- the potential earnings with uncapped commissions,
- the opportunity to travel and work in offices across 3 different countries (U.K, Czech Republic, Switzerland) and soon to be more,
- the total transparency in internal promotions and many other aspects, but we're not going to talk about that now.

Now it's about the training you will receive in order to give you the skills to earn those uncapped commissions, the training to help you develop a good work flow and organisational skills that will allow you to be promoted. And to be honest, there is no other like it. We are the only recruitment company with a dedicated quality assurance department and an ever ready, ever eager to help training and development department. We could talk about the fact that NonStop was actually awarded for its training quality, but I'm going to challenge you to come and find out for yourself.

The training period lasts for 3 months and takes place in the beautiful city of Prague. Don't worry about finding a place to stay as
