Join the Transfer Pricing team in Corporate Tax

At PwC, we have a strong international network of dedicated transfer pricing specialists with advanced training in transfer pricing supplemented by economics, accounting, law and project management. Our transfer pricing team consists of 8 professionals in Aarhus and 21 professionals in Copenhagen. In Aarhus you will also be a part of our Corporate Tax department who consists of 30 employees working with different corporate tax issues such as international tax, restructurings, M&As etc.

The right candidate will be part of a highly skilled and ambitious team. We have an open, informal and non-hierarchical culture, and you will be given the opportunity to shape your own career and the development of our team. We primarily work in teams of 2-3 people on assignments and make use of each other’s areas of expertise. We are internationally oriented and our working days reflect a dynamic workplace and are at times completely unpredictable.

As an assistant consultant you will assist the other members of the team in providing solutions for the complex transfer pricing issues, which multinational groups face when entering into cross-border transactions. This includes providing assistance in the preparation of transfer pricing documentation, e.g., in relation to industry analysis, company analysis, and benchmarking studies. You will also assist with other assignments on an ad hoc basis. The position is for around 15 hours per week but we will be flexible in exam periods.

Our expectations are as high as yours

We expect that you:

- Are currently studying economics or finance (i.e., cand.merc.aud., cand.merc.jur., cand.o econ., cand. merc. fib. etc.) with 1-2 years left of your studies
- Have an interest in transfer pricing
- Are among the best in your class
- Have strong analytical skills
- Have a flair for numbers & quantitative analysis
- Are a team player with strong interpersonal communication skills
- Have good skills in formulation/report writing in English and Danish
